

WRVAG Executive Board

Our Executive Board meetings are open to the public and we encourage those individuals who are interested in our vision to attend any of our meetings. Our website lists our current projects and we welcome new ideas.

Board members leave for any number of reasons and, as amazing as our Board of Directors are at directing this organization, our Board is currently not sustainable. We do not have enough Board members to provide for continuity and knowledge base, ensuring a smooth transition when Board members begin to leave.

So, if you are an artist/artisan or an individual who loves art — and you wouldn't be receiving this newsletter if you weren't — please consider joining our team. You do not need to be an officer of the Board, we have unlimited positions for Members at Large. Please attend a Board meeting as a guest.

President's Message

The WRVAG Board is very excited to bring our community a variety of creative visual and listening artistic mediums — a journey to enrich your soul. You don't want to miss any of these opportunities. If you're not on our mail list, sign up at www.wrvag.org.

This year, the WRVAG is sponsoring our first "open" exhibition: "Transitions". This is a "themed" exhibition where the artist explores the subject of "transitions", to discover and create a piece of artwork that expresses or illustrates the "theme" of the exhibition. It is open to all mediums. For a prospectus, entry form, and more information: www.wrvag.org/support\_docs/sponsor\_exhibit.html.

In addition, this year we have a full exhibition schedule in our Warm Springs Gallery, featuring local and regional artists. (See In the Gallery section of this newsletter).

The WRVAG Dubois Chamber Music committee is bringing back the Jackson Hole Chamber Music String Quartet for a performance on August 27 (See Events & Classes section of this newsletter).

Further, they are moving forward on two more musical events this year – see the Dubois Chamber Music portion of our website to stay abreast.

In closing, I want to thank our Patrons, as well as members of our communities for supporting the WRVAG in our pursuit of bringing all forms of creative vision to our community!

"Art, in all its disciplines, speaks to our soul...our humanity...and, in these trying times, it is needed more than ever."

On The Web

To keep you better informed, we have added a new section to our website: Dubois Chamber Music. You can stay informed by "touching" the Chamber Music link on our WRVAG website sidebar or by going directly to duboischambermusic.wrvag.org. Stay informed as we move forward with providing creative vision in the arts! As always, sign up for our newsletter.

We are now accepting requests for Featured Artists for our 2024 exhibition season. Currently, we have only a couple of exhibition dates remaining. Visit our website and "Touch" the Featured Artist Link for more information.
